

Sustainability Program (SUST) Standards as Aligned with School Standards for Natural Sciences and Mathematics (NAMS)

In order to deal with the aligned curriculum and standards of the Sustainability Program in line with the School Standards for Natural Science and Mathematics, the following SUST Program standards are included in the initial amendment of the NAMS standard.

NAMS

The Sustainability Program aims to help in reaching the highest level of individual well-being through public engagement and education in the local community and the teaching endeavor while also ensuring excellence in the University and School standard in all areas.
