State Sen. Christopher J. Connors, representing the 9th Legislative District, completed the third and final day of the Legislator-in-Residence Program at his alma mater, the Richard Stockton College of New Jersey.

Under the program, members of the New Jersey State Senate and General Assembly are invited to Stockton's campus to interact with students and faculty. Connors was the legislative participant for the spring semester.

On his final day participating in the program, Connors met with students enrolled in the course "Veterans: A Global Vision" to discuss veterans' issues. Connors currently serves on the Senate Military and Veterans' Affairs Committee and is a co-chairman of the New Jersey Veterans' Hospital Task Force.

As part of his continuing efforts on behalf of veterans, Connors, along with Senator James Whelan, is a prime sponsor of legisl
