

Miami Herald > Entertainment > People > People Wires

A look at the NJ Senate race for Lautenberg's seat

BY GEOFF MULVIHLL
ASSOCIATED PRESS

TRENTON, N.J. -- THE RACE

New Jersey voters get to pick a new U.S. senator in a special election Wednesday to fill the remaining 15 months of the late Frank Lautenberg's term.

Republican Gov. Chris Christie called the unusual October election in June, the day after Lautenberg, a Democrat, died at 89. Candidates had less than a week to file papers to run; party primaries were held in August.

Network and become a source for The Miami Herald and el Nuevo Herald.

View comments

Real Estate

Cars

» Find a home

» Find a car

Enter Keyword(s)

Enter City

Select a State – All United States –

Select a Category – All Job Categories –

Advanced Job Search
Search by Category

RSS | My Yahoo | Newsletters | Mobile | Alerts | Twitter

Terms of Service | Privacy Policy | About our ads | Copyright | About the Miami Herald | About the McClatchy Company | Corrections | Contact Us | Advertise | Wb525 0 2Cve11s7.3