

A class at Rutgers University, which is projecting a record number of applications this year. (Ed Murrery | Star-Ledger)

By Adam Clark | NJ Advance Media for NJ.com
Email the author | Follow on Twitter (<https://twitter.com/realAdamClark>)

on March 25, 2015 at 8:35 AM

Email

NEW BRUNSWICK \(http://www.nj.com/education/\)

a recent Moody's

Investors Service report \(http://www.cic.edu/News-and-Publications/Multimedia-Library/CICConferencePresentations/2015%20Presidents%20Institute/20150105-The%20Financial%20and%20Strategic%20Outlook%20for%20Private%20Colleges%204.pdf\)

became SAT optional this application cycle

(http://www.nj.com/education/2014/07/montclair_state_to_make_sat_optional_for_admission.html)