Galloway Township, NJ – The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey will play host to a free lecture by Dr. Birute Mary Galdikas, world expert on orangutans, on Friday September 28.

Dr. Galdikas, subject of national media attention for her research and field work with these fascinating animals, will present the talk, “Endangered Orangutans and Disappearing Rain Forest in Borneo” which is free and open to the public.

The event will take place from 2:30 to 4 p.m. in the Campus Center Theatre on September 28. A reception follows the talk.

The event is part of a schedule of events presented by Orangutan Foundation International, which also includes a fundraiser at Greate Bay Country Club in Somers Point on Saturday, September 29, and a brunch on September 30.
