

STOCKTON

Stockton Center on Successful Aging Announces First Wednesday Professional Lecture for April 4, 2012 at Stockton

Genesis HealthCare and Stockton Center on Successful Aging present:
Connecting Hospital and Community: The Importance of Effective Discharge Planning

For Immediate Release

Wednesday, March 07, 2012

Contact: Tim Kelly
Office of Public Relations
Galloway Township, NJ 08240
Tim.Kelly@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4950

Galloway Township, NJ- The Stockton Center on Successful Aging announces the next professional workshop in the First Wednesday series designed to help professionals working with older adults, scheduled for Wednesday, April 4, 2012 from 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. in the Campus Center Trustee Room (CC-BOT) on the Stockton Campus at 101 Vera King Farris Drive, Galloway.

The workshop is titled Connecting Hospital and Community: The Importance of Effective Discharge Planning and presented by Michelle Walmsley, MSW, LSW. Michelle is an Adjunct Instructor of Gerontology at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey and teaches "Introduction to Gerontology" and "Aging & Health" in the undergraduate Gerontology Minor. She is an alumna of Monmouth and Virginia Commonwealth universities. Michelle has been a medical social worker in hospital and community settings, and of social services who work with older adults are free of charge and include a full breakfast. Upon completion, participants will receive 1 CE for Social Workers, Marriage and Family Therapists, and Licensed Professional Counselors. Online advanced registration is required by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, March 27, 2012 and can be accessed via the SCOSA website at www.stockton.edu/scosa. For more information contact: Denise Raymond, Denise.Raymond@GenesisHCC.com.

#