

STOCKTON

Stockton Center on Successful Aging Announces Free Professional Seminar

Culturally Competent Practices with Latino Clients and Families to be Discussed
Building on Evidence Based Principles scheduled for February 23, 2012

For Immediate Release

Tim.Kelly@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4950

Galloway Township, NJ- The Stockton Center on Successful Aging announces a professional seminar sponsored by Right at Home and the Shores of Wesley Manor, scheduled for Thursday, February 23, 2012 from 4:30 pm to 7:00 pm at The Shores at Wesley Manor, 2201 Bay Avenue, Ocean City, NJ.

The seminar, designed for professionals, para-professionals, and other caregivers who work with older adults is free of charge and includes a complimentary dinner. Upon completion, participants will receive 2 CEs for Social Workers.

The seminar titled Culturally Competent Practices with Latino Clients and Families: Building on Evidence Based Principles will be presented by Dr. Merydawilda Colon, Associate Professor of Social Work and Coordinator of Stockton's Social Work Program.

This presentation highlights empirically-based principles for culturally competent practice with Latinos. After attending this seminar, participants will be able to verbalize and apply empirically-based principles for culturally competent practice with Latinos, using a strengths perspective approach and tools such as the culturagram to assess Latino families in terms of acculturation and family functioning (i.e. family stress and conflict areas)

