Through this system, a matriculated student works closely and continuously with a faculty or staff preceptor to set educational goals, assesses progress toward goals, and make adjustments as necessary. Working through the preceptorial system, students learn to build and implement programs of study that relate to what they want to accomplish while maintaining overall goals of a liberal arts education. Students learn that they must accept responsibility for the value of their education. A preceptor and preceptee work

II. Change of Preceptor

All preceptor assignments are administered by the Center for Academic Advising. Any changes must be requested from the Center for Academic Advising.

III. Center for Academic Advising

The Center is staffed by full-time professional advisors who provide a variety of advising and other academic support services to all students throughout the year. Advising services include initial preceptor assignments, transfer credit equivalencies, maintenance of the CAPP degree audit system, individual advising and intervention for students on academic probation.
